

Integrating Title IV-B and Child and Family Review Processes

Mary Nelson, MSW, ACSW, LISW
Child Welfare Director
Iowa Department of Human Services

What did we do in terms of CFSR/CFSP integration?

An interrelated whole is easier if you structure and organize your processes for both simultaneously.

What did we do in terms of CFSR/CFSP integration?

- ◆ Aligned our organizational structures.
- ◆ Defined and communicated the CFSP and CFSR as parts of a whole at every opportunity.
- ◆ Used meaningful collaborations and integrated process to engage child welfare partners.

Aligned our organizational structures.

- ◆ IV-B and CFSR coordinators are in the same bureau, managed by the same person.
- ◆ Service Business Task Team structure is aligned with CFSR & IV-B.
- ◆ CFSR outcomes and systemic factors are identified in our Child Welfare Strategic Plan. DHS Strategic Plan is integrated into IV-B.
- ◆ Preliminary Statewide Assessment integrated into the IV-B plan.

Defined and communicated the CFSP and CFSR as parts of a whole at every opportunity.

- ◆ Communicate continuously that CFSP and CFSR are parts of a whole
- ◆ Presentations to communicate CFSP & CFSR [Stakeholder Panel Power Point Presentation]
- ◆ Consistent goals and objective in 4B plan from the CFSR-PIP

Meaningful Collaboration

- ◆ Stakeholder Panel chaired by Court Improvement Director and Child Welfare Director
- ◆ Charter defines CFSP and CFSR roles and responsibilities
- ◆ Panel informed of CFSP and CFSR basics
- ◆ Small Groups focus on child welfare outcomes
- ◆ Stakeholders are informed at each meeting of how their input is being used to improve the child welfare system

Planning for Next CFSR

- ◆ Planning Integrated
- ◆ Current Assessment of Outcomes and Systemic Factors builds on last CFSR
- ◆ Continuous Quality Improvement expected for CFSR goals through the ongoing 4B plan and reports
- ◆ Planning structure includes integrated 4B/CFSR planning structure with meaningful collaboration*
