

AREAS OF INQUIRY

Therapists

- I. Description of their role:
  - A. Overview of services they provide
  - B. Intake process
  - C. Training they receive
  - D. Referrals they make
  - E. Caseloads
  - F. What would be an ideal caseload?
  - G. Hours

- II. Delivery of services:
  - A. Age groups of clients?
  - B. Where are clients typically served?
  - C. Typically where are services provided when a child is in child care?
Reasons.
  - D. How are these decisions made?
  - E. If services are not provided at child care, is transportation provided for the child?
  - F. When services are not delivered at the child care program, what problems, if any, does that pose for the families?
  - G. Scheduling issues

- III. Communication:
  - A. Frequency of communication with child's parents
  - B. Frequency of communication with child's service providers
  - C. Communication with child care provider?
  - D. What assistance, if any, do you provide the child care provider?

- IV. Knowledge about families:
  - A. Stress levels
  - B. Most frequently heard concerns by parents
  - C. Biggest concerns about the children and families you serve?

- VI. Their suggestions for what changes would make it easier for these families, especially in balancing work and family.