

Places to Post Flyers

The list below reflects the variety of recruitment sources we used for posting and handing out flyers, placing ads and making presentations in our communities:

- Elementary Schools
- Churches
- Laundromats
- Community Centers
- Libraries
- Supermarkets
- Town Hall/Town Offices
- Bus Stations/Bus Stops
- Pharmacies
- Hairdressers
- Video Stores
- Court House
- Convenience Stores
- Fast Food Restaurants
- YMCA
- Boy's and Girl's Clubs
- Thrift Stores
- Community Health Centers
- Hospital Outpatient Clinics
- Child Care Centers
- Pediatric Health Center
- Human Services Center
- Child Development Center
- Catholic Family Services
- Program for Displaced Homemakers
- Community Colleges
- Town Social Services
- Department of Children & Families
- Adult Education Centers
- Youth and Family Services
- Catholic Charities
- Cultural Centers
- Easter Seals (birth to 3, work readiness, and welfare to work)
- Housing Authorities
- Career Centers
- WIC/Nutritional Programs
- Home Health Agencies
- United Way
- Community Action Programs
- Soup Kitchens/Food Pantries

In addition, flyers were also sent home in elementary school children's backpacks, mailed to all child care centers in the chosen communities, and mailed to statewide organizations working on behalf of, and serving, families with children with special needs.